Description

A very old pine marriage linen chest with the original paintwork, including the initials of the newly weds and the date of the marriage - c.1811. In lovely condition for its age, with lots of character and charm. Under the lift up lid you will find the original hinges and candle box, both in good order. There are the original carrying handles to the sides of the chest, and the very attractive original lock and key are in good working order. These flat top boxes make excellent side table / coffee table alternatives, toy boxes and shoe boxes. Height 20", width 47", depth 24"
