Description

This is a pair of antique chairs, English, late Georgian fruitwood dining chairs in the Chippendale taste, dating to circa 1780. Attractive pair of dining chairs, stable and comfortable. Delightful colour to the fruitwood with a wax polished finish. Of quality craftsmanship, in good proportion with a desirable aged patina. Traditionally stuffed seat pads finished in a pale needlepoint cloth. Shaped crest rail featuring scrolled, oblique ears. Well executed, Chippendale-esque baluster pierced splat. Raised on square section legs featuring classic chamfered inner corners. United by a box stretcher for added strength. A super pair of antique chairs of classic Georgian form. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
