Description

Antique Bergere 3 piece lounge suite, consisting of a sofa & two armchairs. The frames are solid walnut with cane panels. It's all been polished & re-upholstered, so is in excellent condition. We have only had the seats re-upholstered, but the rest can be finished off with feather cushions on the seats & what ever formation or shape of back cushion required. Reason being is that we couldn't figure out whether to have scatter cushions or shaped cushions on the backs. The frames have a nice shape, with some good carvings on the backs & on the feet. The cane work is in excellent condition & looks original. This lounge suite dates from around the 1910-20's period. We price we are offering for is with all the upholstery finished off with scatter cushions or shaped cushions. However, if you want to take it as is & handle your own upholstery we can reduce the price accordingly.
