Description

This superb EDWARDIAN SILVER PEDESTAL BOWL was made by W.I Broadway in 1906. Standing on a raised pierced pedestal base, this stunning bowl is decorated in an Art Nouveau style. The bowl has a plain base with a pierced lower bowl and upper decorated border. The border is decorated with oval piercings with laurel leaf swags throughout and the bowl is finished with a rope twist decoration to the rim. There are no added monograms, initials or engravings. A real quality Silver Bowl, in excellent condition with little or no signs of wear, this fabulous piece would look fantastic in any setting and would certainly enhance any Silver collection.
