Description

A charming piece of the popular and collectable aesthetic movement. This lovely silver plated belt buckle is decorated to the front with engraved swooping birds, reeds and bamboo shoots. The scene is framed by a greek key border with leaf motifs to the four corners. The front hinges forwards to allow the belt to be tightened or undone. A charming pricked inscription 'Lillie, from George, Xmas 1887' is found to the underside of the front helping to date the buckle to the late Victorian period. Dimensions below.
