Description

A very generously proportioned Victorian footstool on turned mahogany legs, terminating with original brass castors. This antique stool has been reupholstered in linen type fabric and edged with brass studs. The finely striped green and white fabric contrasts well with the turned mahogany legs and gives this traditional stool a fresh appeal that would fit easily into any decorative scheme. This large versatile stool is in excellent condition and is ready to use as a coffee table in the sitting room or as a luxurious stool in a bedroom. c.1880 Width: 41.5" (105cm) Depth: 24" (61cm) Height: 14.5" (37cm)
