Description

Mid C19th mahogany rectangular top lamp or occasional table of small proportions. Good quality mahogany pedestal table raised on a turned and swollen stem onto a concave-sided quadripite base with compressed turned bun feet. The rectangular top with a shallow frieze frame. High quality well-designed table with excellent stability, in the manner of Holland & Sons of London. The mahogany timber of a very high grade and density, the single-piece solid top having achieved a pleasant mellow patina. In excellent original condition throughout with no damage or repairs.
