Description

Circa 1920-1940 this glass drop ceiling light has five rows of glass drops, all complete and original and some have been fitted with new brass wires to keep them in place. The light measures 45cm in length including the brass ceiling hook at the top, and at the widest part it measures 38cm. The top of the ceiling light has an ornate brass frame with seven brass leaves holding diamond shaped glass drops. Between the leaves are swags of glass beads. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price and for remote parts or abroad please contact us for a quote for delivery.
