Description

An attractive Satinwood Centre Table, decorated throughout with floral swags and ribbons with multiple inlays and crossbanding in various woods etc. It has had a small hidden repair to one of the stretchers and a few small blemishes as illustrated in the photographs which simply add to the history of this quality table. It is a wonderful colour and has a great patina. Considering the overall condition of this item it represents great value. It has reeded legs joined by plateaued cross stretchers, a very attractive period piece.
