Description

A fine example of a beautiful Victorian Lady's Vanity Box with silver plated interior. The outer of the box is made of the finest quality rosewood which has been inlaid with a mother of pearl cartouche and matching escutcheon. The box is fully fitted with 6 bottles - 2 glass perfume bottles and 4 vanity pots with silver plated lids. There are sections covered with velvet lids and the main interior of the box lifts out to reveal further storage space beneath to store items such as brushes or combs. The lid of the box houses a small removable mirror and paper document rack behind the velvet interior. There is a brass rod which when pulled up releases a drawer in the bottom side of the box. The drawer is lined in blue velvet and generally used for storing jewellery. It is in excellent condition for its age and has been very well made and well looked after. There are some minor splits and general signs of age and use around the box but overall the piece displays beautifully. There is a small tear in the paper document holder in the lid. Some of the silver plated lids have small dents and dinks in them and there are some small chips and nibbles around the tops of the bottl...
