Description

Painted with watercolour on organic wafer by N Millett of 45 Oxford Street, London, in 1800, this charming miniature depicts a blue eyed young woman wearing a white dress with ruffled neckline. The backing paper does not indicate the name of the sitter. The black painted frame is of a heraldic shield design with a brass edged oval shaped domed glass. There is a chip to the upper right and left corners of the frame which appears to be the original. The condition of the painting is excellent with no chips, cracks or restoration. About the Date of Manufacture: Georgian. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund of the purchase price less the return transport costs with an approved courier once an item is received by us in the same condition as it was originally dispatched. We look forward to being of service.
