Description

Victorian inlaid walnut circular workbox This Victorian inlaid walnut circular workbox was made circa 1870. It is of the rare circular shape, with an Irish carved edge and base. The lid lifts to reveal the birch fitted interior, and with the blind fret design under. The circular top is supported but 3 walnut carved columns, that come off the base with 3 cabriole leg supports. This table has many uses around your home. It can of course be used as a sewing table, but also as a lamp or wine table. This table has the Hingstons Antiques brand plate, that guarantees that it is of the right quality to be allowed to go into our stock. 43cms diameter (17ins) 70cms high (27 1.2ins) UK mainland delivery £75+vat
