Description

A top quality box having been professionally polished to its original former glory. Very stylish and unusual for Bouille with a clear Art Nouveau design c.1900 / 1910. The Tortoiseshell was attached to the hardwood frame with coloured matter below (in this case red) to give this highly sought after reddish-orange colouring to these works of art. This process first developed by the French cabinetmaker, André-Charles Bouille (11 November 1642 – 28 February 1732, highly popular in nineteenth century Britain into the very early 20th century. The box is perfect for Jewelry, cufflinks or wrist watches, with the interior professionally lined in a soft faux suede. Item: 40469 Beautiful quality and condition measuring 10 1/2" x 5 1/4" x 2 3/4".
