Description

Fine set of 10 early C19th Scottish Regency period mahogany dining chairs . Superb set of 10 high quality Scottish mahogany dining chairs comprising of 8 single chairs and 2 armchairs. The mahogany frames with carved moulded detail to uprights and seat frame friezes. The corners with reeded decorated block design . The flame-veneered backs with ebony line inlay surround. The frame backs inset with double reeded lumbar bars either side of an elegant and intricately-carved and pierced classically-inspired design splat with paterae detail . The turned fore-legs terminating in a shapely bulbous foot , whilst all four legs are united by cross-over finely-turned X stretchers. All with their original drop-in seats . The carver , or armchairs , each with elegantly formed swept arms with a vase shaped support to the frame . Of typical Scottish Regency period design , possibly made by Morison & Co of Ayr (est. 1808) , a company known for the quality of their furniture , and associated with this distinctive pattern of chair . All chairs in excellent original condition with no damage or repairs. Have been cleaned and waxed in our workshops. The drop-in seats have been reup...
