Description

Simply stunning pair of 19th century Chinese Demi Lune Tables, that can either be used as a pair of Console Tables or joined together to make a round Centre Table. The tables lock together with a pair of wooden pegs, in the usual Oriental way. Profusely carved on the front aprons, and with a geometric pattern to the lower shelf makes this pair of tables a real treat for the eyes. They show signs of wear and tear as you would expect, and we have refrained from over restoring them, so that they display their history with pride.
