Description

A good quality George II mahogany tea table raised on elegant cabriole legs with pad feet. This attractively shaped fold over top opens to make an excellent supper or breakfast table. This Georgian table is in lovely original condition, it has not been repolished and therefore retains its attractive rich colour and patina. There are some marks to the top as you might expect of an early Georgian piece, these only add to the beauty and authentic charm of the table. The table stands well, it is stable and does not wobble. A very versatile Georgian table to place in the entrance hall or any room in the home. c.1750 Width: 31.5" (80cm) Depth: 15.5" (39.5cm) Height: 28.75" (72.5cm) Top open: 31.5" (80cm) x 31" (79cm)
