Description

A gents 9 carat gold Cyma wrist watch, 1938. The watch has a 15-jewel signed hand-winding movement which is working nicely. The watch measures 29mm wide excluding the winding crown and 29mm high excluding the lugs. The case is 9 carat gold and there are hallmarks inside the case back for Birmingham 1938. The front of the case is in good condition while the back has some unevenness but overall it is acceptable for such an early piece. The lens is in good condition. The dial has very light marking, nothing serious at all. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box. Free worldwide shipping
