Description

An attractive small swing mirror dating from the early 19th century. It has a simple mahogany frame with brass finials and brass adjusting screws. It has its original bevelled mercury plate glass which has aged wonderfully with plenty of wear and foxing. It is in good condition for its age. There has been a small repair to the veneer on one corner (see photo) but no other major damages and it displays very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £25.
