Description

Late C18th George III period tray-top mahogany bedside cupboard or night table . Tray-top bedside cupboard or commode with adapted interior fitting, now a highly practical and functional table for use in a bedroom or drawing room . The lifting hinged front with twin simulated doors and drawer , fitted with cast brass ring handles with circular back plates . Raised on simple elegant square section supports , the sides with pierced carved carrying apertures. Of free-standing form , finished and polished all around . The interior with two stepped sections . Has a multiple of practical uses , would make a discreet bottle store or small bar , or an excellent bedside table with added storage capacity. In good original condition with no splits or cracks , has a rich original patina and colour . The front with superior figured 'flame' veneers , high grade of timber throughout. Minor marks and stains commensurate with age, use and purpose. H 31" W 21" D 18" England c.1800
