Description

Signed - S Abeloos - oil on canvas mounted in an attractive wooden art deco frame. The painting shows a view of a French harbour and is inscribed on the rear 'souvenir du la manifestation du 17-11-1923' Sonia Abeloos, was born in Brussels in 1876 and died in Brussels in 1969. She was a Belgian painter who painted mainly landscapes, seascapes and portraits. Abeloos was a pupil of the Brussels Academy, where she studied under the direction of Isidore Verheyden (1848-1905), Guillaume Van Strydonck (1861-1937) and Dillens and Rousseau. She was a member of the artistic circle of Brussels. In 1966, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, the National Council of Women, of which she was the oldest, honoured her by organizing a visit to his studio. There were exhibits representative of his 70 years of activity. She has works in the museums of Schaerbeek, Ixelles (Brussels) and is referenced in the Dictionary of Belgian painters.
