Description

A superb quality 19th Century oak twin pedestal desk with stunning serpentine lines. This Victorian desk has a centre drawer, four graduated shaped drawers to each pedestal, fluted pilasters to each side, green tooled leather top and original handles. There is a cupboard at the back of each pedestal, both these cupboards have a working lock and key. The desk has its original castors, these are concealed within the lower plinth. The condition of the desk is excellent, two of the bottom handles have a tiny piece missing, these are minor and not apparent unless pointed out.
