Description

A splendid William IV / early Victorian period rosewood library table. Very well constructed in rosewood and attractive rosewood veneers onto a solid mahogany carcase. The rectangular top has rounded corners and embellished with a gadrooned edge. The frieze has two drawers to the front and is finished to the rear such that the table can be free-standing within a room if desired. It stands on two solid column supports which terminate in t-form legs finishing in lions paw feet. This lovely table is offered for sale in excellent condition with a great colour and patina, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 138cms Depth 65cms Height 72cms
