Description

This superb ANTIQUE SILVER TRAY was made by the well-known and sought after silversmiths of James Deakin & Sons in Chester in 1908. Beautifully embossed with scrolls and flowers and with a raised gadrooned border and pie-crust rim, this tray is in excellent condition with very little sign of use or wear. Free from any added inscriptions, monograms or initials the tray has a large central blank cartouche which could be used to personalise this excellent piece. A stunning Silver Tray made from heavy gauge silver which would look superb in any setting or could enhance any collection.  Condition  Used / Excellent
