Description

Original 1930s English Art Deco sideboard made from mahogany and veneered in blonde walnut. Made by the Epstein this sideboard shows all the signs of quality one would expect from these brothers. But it not only looks and feels impressive it's functional too, providing very generously sized storage for the most avid hoarders. The internals provide both spacious shelving and lined drawers with military inset handles and further drawers. Comes with original keys which are function smoothly as do the doors. We've had the whole piece fully and professionally restored so comes to you in tip top condition. History of the makers. Epstein furniture was originally founded in East London in the 1890's. Harry and Lou Epstein started the production of Art Deco forms from the 1930's. The craftsmanship was to extremely high standards, most pieces were custom-made. Art Deco pieces are not signed. From the 1960's, some pieces were labelled 'H. & L. Epstein' or 'Epstein & Goldman'.
