Description

This is a super antique Victorian sterling silver mustard pot measuring 3" (7 cms) high to the top of the knob on the lid x 3 3/4" (9.5 cms) across including the handle x 2" (5 cms) deep complete with spoon and case. The spoon and mustard are hallmarked for London 1897 with the silversmiths mark for Horace Woodward & Co. The pot & spoon together weigh 96.3 grams, it has an opaque glass liner and everything is in excellent condition. It's particularly nice as it comes in the original presentation case which shows the retailers name 'Hall & Co, King St, Manchester'. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
