Description

This good quality 19th Century Mahogany Canterbury, would be just the thing to tidy up all your loose magazines and papers laying around the house! With good size turned legs and frames, a sure sign of quality as dimensions of timber weren't skimped when made. The legs show refined delicate turning, and fine finials to top off each leg. The drawer adds to the storage possibilities, as well. With a good colour to the timber and presented in excellent condition, this Canterbury is not only aesthetically pleasing but also extremely useful.
