Description

A fabulous small three piece cruet from the late Victorian era. All three pieces have attractive green glass bodies and the mustard pot and pepper are finished with silver mounts. The frame is of wire work with bead embellishments and has a double looped handle to the rear. The base is fashioned as a trefoil and sits on three ball feet. The salt would have been 'pinched' to serve and the pepper has star shaped piercing to the lid. The mustard has a charming lion armorial with shell shaped thumb grip to the lid and comes with an associated silver spoon. Only rarely do these sets survive complete and undamaged and this would make a great gift idea, being both practical and decorative. Dimensions below. Postage and Packing :- £12.00 UK. £20.00 Worldwide. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits to the silver and no chips or cracks to the glass. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable, with bottles fully marked as well. Maker :- Hukin & Heath. Date :- Birmingham 1893 & 1900. Mustard pot height :- 5.3 cms. (to top of thumb grip) Salt diameter :- 3.5 cms. Pepper pot height :- 4.5 cms. Base width :- 9.5 cms. (from ...
