Description

Mid C19th Victorian period figured rosewood circular centre or breakfast table . Excellent quality highly figured rosewood circular centre table raised on a carved cabriole leg tripod base . The underside fitted with its original frame and brass-handled tilting action to the central block . The book-matched veneered rosewood top retaining its original patina , colour and polish . The circular top with a shaped and cross-banded 'bevelled' style edge , the top with a beaded and shallow frieze edge. The triple shaped cabriole carved solid rosewood legs each fitted with brass castors . The central rosewood column of the base with heavily carved detail. Minor marks to the top and wear to the edges commensurate with age , use and purpose . Good scale centre , breakfast or loo table of elegant and practical proportions.
