Description

Ladies antique Waltham silver half hunter and albertina. The watch has a stem-winding movement, grade 120, which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed and the serial number 18,282,381 dates it back to around 1912. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 36mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside all three covers for Birmingham 1909. The case was made by the Dennison Watch Case Company, a prolific manufacturer of cases for various watch manufacturers, although they had a particularly close association with Waltham. There is a slight discrepancy in dates but we are happy that the movement and case are original to each other. The case is in good condition, especially for such an early piece, with just light marking, nothing serious at all. The front cover has a small lens surrounded by enamel filled numerals. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside, there is a glass lens. It is in good condition although there are traces of a trade label which would have been stuck to the glass when it was originally purchased. The signed dial is in good...
