Description

This is a mid-size antique centre table. An English, Victorian, circular, burr walnut tea table dating to the mid 19th century, circa 1870. Spectacular grain interest in the quarter veneered burr walnut. Desirable aged patina and good consistent colour. Of good proportions, mid-sized ideal as a side or display table. Moulded edge detail over attractive serpentine apron. Raised on four turned legs united by an 'X' stretcher. Out-swept at the bottom and riding upon ceramic castors. A mid-sized piece displaying much interest. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
