Description

Antique oil on canvas showing a view of a river in winter. The painting is signed George Lambillotte (Barnet, Great Britain, 1915 - Godinne, 1998). The canvas is mounted in a simple silver frame and dates from around 1940 -1950. Lambillotte was a Belgium impressionist painter and draftsman who trained at the Academies of Namur and Brussels under Alfred Bastien and Frans Smeers. After spending some time in Brussels, he moved to Godinne in 1955. He took his inspiration from the Ardennes landscapes, and the Meuse but also painted portraits and still lifes. He used large brush stroke and a clear and bright palette. He was a member of the circle "L'Esquisse" in Namur and exhibited in 1934 and 1937. Dimensions including - 47 x 41 x 3 cms
