Description

A lovely small table gong, dating from around 1900. Excellent quality, made of heavy solid brass with a wooden beater and a superb design. It is in good condition for its age. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and displays very well. There would have originally been two small stands on the base for the beater but it rests on the base well enough without them. The beater is in good condition and most importantly it makes a very satisfying 'bong!' The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £10.
