Description

This is an antique piano stool in rosewood, an adjustable music seat, English, Victorian and dating to the latter part of the 19th century, circa 1880. Beautifully made in rosewood with a waxed finish and desirable aged patina. Raised on a tripod of cabriole legs terminating in scrolled toes. Well carved acanthus leaves decorating the knees. Inverted, turned finial beneath bulbous 'squash' baluster column. Threaded adjustable riser offering seating from 18.5 inches up to 21.75 inches. Traditionally stuffed, upholstered in a red velour cloth with contrasting trim. A super example, comfortable and stable. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
