Description

A Trio of Very Large Antique Apothecary or Old Chemist Jars Shop Display These superb very large jars would have stood on a top shelf of the chemist shop, they were intended as display rather than for everyday use. The jars have gold writing on their deep round bowls, they are in fairly good condition, there are signs of a repair to one of the tops but it is not very noticeable, they have tall pointed gold painted lids, we have filled the jars with liquid food colouring to show off the gold signs on the front. A superb set, the jars are 24" high and 11" in diameter.
