Description

4 large French Walnut armchairs looking identical but being a set of three plus one other of very similar design. The slight difference in the arms can be seen in picture 3. These delightful chairs will require upholstering; the springs are in need of tightening and some of the joints will need tightening. There is no woodworm and there are no repairs to the frames. These chairs present a chance to take on a renovation project. Please note these chairs are not yet on view at Merchant House.
