Description

A beautiful antique oak stationery box with a sloped front and fitted interior. The cabinet opens up to reveal a series of racks for holding papers and letters with a writing pad in one door and a strung arrangement in the other door for holding small notes or papers. At the bottom of the cabinet is an additional drawer below the pen tray. It has been very well made and although it has been used it has obviously been well looked after over the years. It is in good original condition and the oak has a lovely aged patina. It would have originally had calendar papers in the top and probably a pair of inkwells which have been removed at some point but it isn't detrimental. There are no major damages and overall it displays very nicely. Please have a good look at the photos for the best description and if you have any questions at all please ask. Nationwide delivery £10.
