Description

A lovely miniature tabletop chest of drawers, dating from around 1900. It is a charming piece with four drawers, the top being a false drawer with an unusual lift up top to access this top drawer. Each drawer has two small metal handles and the chest itself has layers of old paint which have worn and flaked over the years. It is well made and each drawer is beautifully made with hand-cut dovetail joints. It is in good original condition. The layers of paint have a wonderful aged patina and the piece is sturdy and the joints are strong. It has retained all of its original knobs apart from one bottom one which is just slightly fatter than the others and the interior of the drawers is generally clean and tidy. There are some general signs of age and use and minor knocks and it is possible the side base plinths have been repaired or replaced at some point but overall it displays very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions or would like to know any additional measurements please ask. Nationwide delivery £10.
