Description

Au Départ Fully Fitted Gentlemans Travelling Dressing Case, Hall Marked Silver A Superb Piece, this is definitely one for the Gentleman that thinks he has everything The case is in Black leather, and carries the Au Départ monogram with the Ave. de L'Opéra Paris shop embossed in silver In side the lid of the case, a bevelled mirror (hook on the back to hang in your railway carriage), a complete 13 piece necessaire set, ever thing required on a journey, from a razors to a corkscrew. The main body of the case has a lift out section, and 2 matching hair brushes, 5 silver topped bottles, one even has the original shaving soap, inkwell and a box containing a small safety razor and brush set, a razor stop and one more hall marked silver lid with no container. Beneath the lift out tray there is a silk covered note book, leather letter folder which still contains some of the original writing paper and envelopes, also pen and pen holder Au Départ was founded in 1834 upon the advent of railway travel. I t was one of the worlds top 3 Luggage manufacturers, particularly noted for luxury fitted interiors The set is in wonderful condition, bearing in mind it is well over 100year...
