Description

Attractive George III silver mustard pot of rounded rectangular baluster form with collet base and set on 4 ball feet. Egg and dart border to the rim to the pot. Hinged lid with pretty shell type cast thumb rest and rectangular pagoda form knob. Shaped squared handle with lower spur and dropping down to a foot before joining the base rim. Fitted with a blue glass liner. Hallmarked for London 1813, maker George Fox I. It measures 9.3cm (3 5/8") wide, 9.5cm (3 3/4") deep and 6.5cm (2 1/2") high. It weighs 158g / 5.1ozt excluding liner (221g in total). Condition is very good, there is a tiny hole in the handle and a tiny dint above. No other damage, dents or repairs and light surface wear. The marks to the side are clear bar slight rubbing to the start of the initials, and clear inside the lid. The liner appears original and is also in fine order.
