Description

This fine 19th century pair of French porcelain and ormolu vases are charming and beautiful pieces. They are highly decorative with Sevres style porcelain bodies painted in fine detail with cherubs on one side and floral displays on the other surrounded with two tone gilt hand painted borders and floral edges to each side. They are mounted with ormolu bases, rims and covers which are hand engraved with excellent detail with silvered highlights over the gold. These pieces are in perfect condition, no repairs or damage but with some minor ware to the ormolu and very minor ware to the porcelain.
