Description

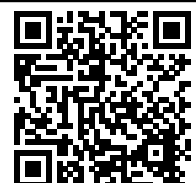

Very Rare French Art Nouveau Brass Floor Lamp with Heron and Water Lilies A Superb and very rare lamp, this one dates from the late 19th Century, the tall brass heron stands on a large brass lily pad leaf, rising from which there are twining stems supporting more leaves and lilies. At the top the brass upright grows through large upward facing lily and then divides to support 2 lightbulbs. The Lamp comes with its original 19th Century Gamp Lampshade, this is covered in its original silk, white on the inside and waxed silk outer, sadly the shade is not in the best of condition and showing signs of its age but the frame is sound and could be recovered The electrics are all working and appear to be relatively new A Fantastic piece in all senses of the word The Lamp is 76" high, and the lampshade is 18" in diameter KW162 Only items dated up to 1920 can be found on Selling Antiques, to see all of our stock including Mid Century and Art Deco post 1920 please view our web site We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an o...
