Description

19th Century French Silk, Gold and Silver Formal Evening Fan A Beautiful piece preserved in a purpose made Frame The fan has the most superb detail, it is made in fine gauze (silk I think) and is decorated with tiny silver and gold sequins (all very tiny and different shapes but under a glass you can see the fine silk threads) The pale tortoise shell sticks are carved and inlaid with silver and gold All in all beautiful piece, the fan has been in the display frame many years though there are signs of its having been used previously The frame is paper covered, inside and out this is showing signs of wear on the outside The frame is 16" wide, 9" high and 1.5" deep V34 Free Delivery Payment by Pay Pal Please
