Description

~ French - Circa 1890 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A superb ormolu (fine gilded bronze) by the famous Maison Baguès. Beautifully made, crisp and finely finished with a lovely original gild. It is Baroque in style with winged cherubs to the shoulders with swags and acanthus. To the top is an elaborate pieced urn with floral swags. To the bottom acanthus and floral swags. It is unusual in having it's original oak mounting board. The dial is porcelain enamel on copper and is signed Eugene Bagues, fabricant de Bronzes, Paris. It is unusual with red half-hour markers and minute ring. The French movement is of high quality and is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. The backplate is stamped with the Baguès movement mark. Pendulum is a original also with the Baguès movement mark. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. It has an unusual patented pendulum swinger, functioned via a key shaft at the 6'oclock position on the dial. Click the video clip below to hear the bell and watch the clock running! Maison Baguès was founded in 1860 as a specialist in liturgical bronzes. Eugène Baguès...
