Description

William IV mahogany side table This William IV mahogany side table was made Circa 1820. It has the characteristics of a Scottish made piece. The side table is fitted 3 drawers along the top with its original turned knob handles. Each drawer with a rosewood banding around the leading edge, which matches the wider rosewood banding that runs around 3 sides of the top. The top is of the usual rectangular shape also with the added interest of turret front corners. The front reed and turned mahogany front legs, that go fully up the frame of the table ending at the top with a multi ring turning. 91cms widest point (36ins) 46cms deepest (18ins) 80cms high (31 1/2ins) All measurements are approximate We can arrange delivery nationwide or shipped worldwide This item has the Hingstons Antiques product guarantee plate, that gives peace of mind that it is of the quality and condition expected when purchasing from us.
