Description

A super Victorian extending dining table in figured Cuban mahogany and with three additional leaves. Dating to c.1870 this classic is of the rarer oval ended shape with a moulded edge and stands on four turned and faceted tapering legs with brass caps and brown pottery castors. A screw expander winding mechanism smoothly extends the table from 5.5ft to 9ft 8.75in allowing it to seat up to 10 people or 12 at a squeeze. Recently repolished using traditional methods and with some old restorations including to the runner stretcher (so not visible). Extended Length - 9ft 8.75in / 116.75in (296.5cm) Closed Length - 66.25in (168.5cm) Width - 53.5in (136cm) Height - 29in (73.5cm) Leaves - 18in, 15.5in and 17.25in (46cm, 39.5cm and 44cm) Legroom - 24.5in (62cm) under end frieze and 28.4in (72cm) under inserted leaves If extra legroom is required a set of wooden cup raisers can be made.
