Description

A rare and unusual set of four silver shot or tot cups, hallmarked for London 1920/21. These small and charming cups are rarely found in English silver, with most examples being Russian. Each cup has a stepped base and the sides are engraved with foliar decorations. To the front are large vacant cartouches and the doubled over rims are flared. The tapered bodies allow the cups stack neatly inside each other. A great set of usable and rare shot cups. Dimensions below.
