Description

Sheraton inlaid mahogany card table. This Sheraton inlaid mahogany card table was made circa 1810. The table is of rectangular form with softly rounding corners. It stands on 4 tapering legs with box stringing and gaiters of Satinwood above the feet. The pair of back legs swing out to provide support for the top once it has folded open to serve as a gaming table. The gaming surface is green baize, with a fine satinwood cross banded border. The top with a central semi-circle of satinwood with strips of mahogany radiating to the good wide satinwood and kingwood cross banded edge. The frieze in mahogany with box wood stringing and a central plaque of satinwood with a diamond shaped panel of amboyna. The edge of the top with kingwood banding. Sheraton gave his name to a style of furniture characterized by a feminine refinement of late Georgian styles and became a source of inspiration behind the furniture of the late 18th century. 91cms wide (36ins) 45cms deep (17 3/4ins) 75cms high (29 1/2ins). All dimensions are approximate. We can arrange delivery nationwide or to be shipped overseas. This item carries the Hingstons Antiques product guarantee plate. This gives you the peace...
