Description

A fine late George III period brass-bound mahogany WINE CELLARETTE in good original condition. Of slightly elongated octagonal shape, the lid opens to reveal the original lead lining, with plug to the base, whilst it is supported on its original stand with tapering legs and brass 'barrel' castors. Complete with working lock and key.

The original lead lining, which shows signs of wear (after 150 or more years!) can be replaced, if required.

Internal Ref: 1809
