Description

This is an antique elbow chair, an English, Victorian, country kitchen armchair in beech dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900. Attractive mellow honey tones to the beech with a desirable aged patina. Displaying good grain detail in the circular seat slab. Standing upon ring turned legs united by an 'H' stretcher. Ring turned spindles rise obliquely supporting the shaped armrests. Terminating in rolled hand grips. The backrest is dished for comfort. An appealing antique elbow chair offering a comfortable seat. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
