Description

A golden opportunity to buy a wonderful pair of original 1930's Art Deco wall lights originating from England. Crescent in shape and slightly stepped with a chrome back plate and surround which holds the opaque glass shades. The glass has a slight opalescent quality to it which looks very attractive both lit and unlit. The shade can be removed easily by unscrewing the two chrome plates which are at the top and bottom of the light. These lights are many possibilities of where they would look great, office, hall way, bathroom. They are a great size too.
